“...a distinctive vocal talent” -Victory Music Review

“...if you haven't heard or seen this man you need to. He's the real deal and his "mouth trumpet" accompaniment is extraordinary. Two thumbs up!” -Casey Garland

Multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and performer Steve Church plays insightful tunes that are humorous, touching, inspiring and at times utterly irreverent. Victory Music called him a “distinctive vocal talent” and fans tend to agree. Hailing from Austin, Texas, Steve lends a country-fied sensibility to many of his songs yet he doesn't eschew catchy, hook-laden pop tunes when onstage. Anything goes – and it goes swimmingly. Whether it echoes Hank Williams, or if it's jazzy with a splash of pop, it's bitingly wry, or if it's straight-ahead folk, Steve does it with adept fingers and a signature baritone sweetness that you'll not forget anytime soon.

Be sure to catch his performance!
